Dear Friend,

Welcome to Magazines Canada's Member Catalogue! This print and digital compendium of 324 Canadian magazines is your guide to our member magazines, each of which publishes outstanding Canadian stories written by Canadians, for Canadians. With a wide variety of titles and readers as diverse as Canada itself, Canadian magazines have long been recognized for their contribution to democracy, mutual understanding and a sense of identity for all.

Canadian magazines are published on print and digital platforms in nearly every jurisdiction in Canada, in many rural and urban areas. With a broad readership among diverse age groups, magazines allow Canadians to tell their stories and speak to each other in ways that instil diversity, tolerance and belonging on a national, regional and local basis. The range of subjects covers news and politics; business and industry; arts and culture; lifestyle and food; and sports and leisure. We like to say, "Whatever your interest, hobby or passion, we've got a magazine for that!" And it's true.

Canadian magazine publishers have always been innovators, embracing change and the opportunities it brings. Pragmatic and forward-looking, they adapted their content and operations to digital platforms years ago. And while Canadian magazines are established on digital platforms, their legacy is in print. Canadian magazine publishers are responsible environmental stewards, printing their magazines on recycled forest-friendly paper.

Chère amie / Cher ami,

Nous sommes heureux de vous présenter le catalogue des membres de Magazines Canada! Ce compendium imprimé et numérique de 324 magazines canadiens est votre guide de nos magazines membres qui, chacun, publient un contenu exceptionnel rédigé par des Canadiens, pour les Canadiens. Avec une grande diversité de titres, et un bassin de lecteurs aussi diversifié que le Canada, les magazines canadiens sont depuis longtemps reconnus pour leur contribution à la démocratie, à la compréhension mutuelle et au sens identitaire de tous.

Les magazines canadiens sont publiés sur plateformes imprimées et numériques, dans pratiquement toutes les régions du Canada, dans plusieurs zones rurales et urbaines. Avec un vaste bassin de lecteur de divers groupes d'âge, les magazines permettent aux Canadiens de raconter leurs histoires et d'échanger entre eux dans le respect de la diversité, de la tolérance et dans le sentiment d'appartenance nationale, régionale et locale. L'éventail des sujets traités couvre l'actualité et la politique; les affaires et le secteur industriel; les arts et la culture; l'art de vivre et l'alimentation; ainsi que les sports et les loisirs. Nous aimons dire « Quels que soient vos intérêts, vos passe-temps ou vos passions, nous avons un magazine pour vous! » Et c'est exact.

Les éditeurs de magazines canadiens ont toujours été innovateurs, adaptés au changement et aux occasions qu'il suscite. Pragmatiques et avant-gardistes, ils ont su adapter leur contenu et leurs activités aux plateformes numériques depuis plusieurs années. Par ailleurs, bien que les magazines canadiens aient une présence établie sur les plateformes numériques, ils sont historiquement publiés sur plateformes imprimées. Les éditeurs de magazines canadiens savent veiller à la qualité de l'environnement, imprimant leurs magazines sur du papier recyclé, respectueux de nos forêts.

Credit notes will be matched with any claim memos you supply.

CONDITIONS

Remises

Vous obtenez une remise de 30 % par rapport au prix au numéro ! C'est la meilleure remise standard que vous pourrez trouver sur le marché.

Expédition et livraison

Le Service de distribution de Magazines Canada dessert toutes les régions au pays, à un très faible coût. Nous couvrons la plus grande partie des coûts d'expédition. Les commerces ne paient qu'une infime portion de ces coûts (pas plus de 5 $ par commande, habituellement moins).

Nous livrons nos magazines à la plupart des détaillants trois fois par mois. Nos clients affirment recevoir les livraisons de Magazines Canada aussi rapidement, souvent même plus rapidement, que celles qu'ils reçoivent d'autres fournisseurs.

Retours

Tous les magazines invendus peuvent nous être retournés. Il suffit de nous retourner la couverture (et la couverture arrière si le code à barres s'y trouve) pour obtenir plein crédit dans les 90 jours suivant la réception du numéro suivant.

Les notes de crédit seront comparées aux feuilles de réclamation que vous nous ferez parvenir.

Relevés

Les détaillants reçoivent un relevé mensuel du Service de distribution de Magazines Canada. Ce relevé fournit le détail des factures, notes de crédit, paiements et rajustements, notamment, et est accompagné de copies des factures et notes de crédit du mois.
